ANNOUNCING SHOWROOM ADDITIONS, NEW PRODUCT LINES AND THE ADAC DESIGN STUDIOS

An Inside Look at ADAC's Newest Showrooms, Lines and Projects

ATLANTA – With every New Year comes new ideas and promise. For ADAC, 2015 is proving to be a year of growth and high-design. As a one-of-a-kind design destination, ADAC strives to provide product diversity throughout showrooms, new concepts to the center and inspirational programming for consumers and designers.

“We are looking forward to an exciting year at ADAC,” explains Katie Miner Belveal, ADAC General Manager. “ADAC will welcome over 15,500 square feet of product introductions through new showrooms and showroom expansions. The vision of our showrooms has brought 60 additional lines to the center adding to the luxury selection. In addition, we will open an office complex on our 5th floor, ADAC Design Studios, which will be home to 11 independent design professionals.”

Over 15,500 Square Feet of New Additions to ADAC:

R HUGHES | Suite 320

One of the most high-end design shopping destinations in the South is relocating from Atlanta’s Westside to ADAC in the summer of 2015. With almost 9,000 square feet of showroom space, R HUGHES will continue to offer design professionals its wide array of artisanal upholstered goods, case goods, lighting, hardware, rugs and fabrics while also continuing to add collections never before shown in the Southeastern market. Founder Ryan Hughes has paired up with iconic Atlanta interior designer Smith Hanes to create a space best described as, “mixing classic Southern sophistication with the raw, fashion-forward looks of New York.”

The Shade Store | Suite 306

Opened in late 2014, The Shade Store specializes in luxury custom window treatments. Offering a variety of shades ranging from roman shades, wood blinds, drapery, drapery hardware and vertical systems, customers can experience fully operational product displays before making a purchase decision.

Summerour Architects | ADAC West, Suite A5

For over 20 years, Summerour Architects have completed projects of the highest quality from coast-to-coast. Now, with a new location in ADAC West, this intimate group of experienced design professionals strive to create noble spaces with lasting materials. They seek to serve the clients and create a space to call their own.

KR SteakBar | ADAC West, Suite D2

Opened in October, KR SteakBar introduces a Group Dining Room. Perfect for private events and intimate dinners this space can accommodate up to 50 guests. Think of KR SteakBar when planning the next business dinner, social gathering, reception and more.

Increased Designer Presence: ADAC Design Studios opens March 2015

ADAC Design Studios | 5th Floor

In early spring, ADAC will welcome 11 independent design professionals to ADAC. The brand new office complex, located on the 5th floor of ADAC, will house some of Atlanta’s top designers including: Mark Williams Design Associates, Melanie Millner/The Design Atelier, Musso Design Group, The Kenney Group, McLaurin Interiors, Bill Ingram Architect and Rollins Ingram and IIDA. The Design Studios create additional office space in ADAC, and join the affluent design community located in ADAC West, which features nine top designers and architects. A limited amount of space is available in the Design Studios – designers should contact Kim Johnson, Director of Leasing at kjohnson@adacatlanta.com of 404.231.1780 for more information.

Photos, interviews and additional product information is available upon request.

About ADAC:

ADAC is a community-focused, nationally-recognized leader in the world of interior design and home fashion, built over 50 years ago by renowned architect and developer John Portman. For a half-century it has served as the essential one-stop shopping resource for interior designers, architects, and builders. The ADAC campus consists of 550,000 square feet with over 60 showrooms offering 1,200 of the industry’s finest product lines including furniture, fabric, rugs, lighting, accessories, floor and wall coverings, antiques, fine art and framing, kitchens, bath, tile and stone, and home theater products. Likewise, ADAC’s extensive services include custom designs such as framing, electronic systems, faux-finishing, and draperies. In addition, signature industry presentations, celebrity and media events, educational programs and networking opportunities held throughout the year make ADAC truly a one-of-a-kind, design destination.
