ATLANTA: Wrapping up its 23rd season of screams, NETHERWORLD is once again ending 2019's haunts, NIGHT OF THE GORGON and COLD BLOODED, on a high note landing on several of the nation's largest top haunt lists including Alternative Press, CNN, Haunt World, MSN, Thrillist, Reader's Digest, and more. Named one of the "Best Haunted Attractions in the United States" by USA Today and "Most Influential Haunted House of All Time" by HauntWorld Magazine, you won't want to miss your last chance to experience this year's mind-altering madness.

You still have time to visit NETHERWORLD in November as the haunts are open November 1–3 and November 8–9. Expect high energy, high startle attractions that will blow you away with the level of special effects and high-end production value. Every night, NETHERWORLD employs 120 "monster" actors that scare and entertain guests at the facility, so come prepared to get scared!

"Our second year in Stone Mountain has been BIG!" said Ben Armstrong, NETHERWORLD Haunted House Co-Creator. "Not only have we upped the ante with this year's haunts, but the entire experience feels more like a Halloween theme park! This year's Fall events may be ending soon, but folks can expect holiday haunts and more exciting announcements in the new year."

NETHERWORLD may be best known as one of the top haunts in the nation, but after their Stone Mountain move to a multi-acre site, the team has been able to expand the year-round entertainment offerings tremendously. The entertainment complex currently has four escape room experiences each with its own creepy theme, a post-apocalyptic themed laser tag arena, a monster museum, an expansive gift shop and more!

Haven't been this year yet? Here's a haunt recap!

NIGHT OF THE GORGON: The slightest glimpse of the nightmarish Gorgon in Eliza Whyshman's accursed mirror is a fate worse than death! Now, an apocalyptic cult is using this evil power to create an army of stone warriors to crush any who dare oppose them. Will they succeed in defeating the forces of darkness with these unstoppable warriors or will an unnamable horror from the depths of the mountain be released by their abuse of power? Flee for your lives before the sun sets on the NIGHT OF THE GORGON!

COLD BLOODED: In the advanced research facility known as The Box, the order has been given to weaponize cloned prehistoric lifeforms spliced with the DNA of reptilian alien subjects. Will this twisted experimentation create a new form of warrior able to win on any battlefield or is the entire project being manipulated by inhuman forces dedicated to the subjugation of mankind? One thing is certain: the results are savage, extremely dangerous, virtually unstoppable, and absolutely COLD BLOODED!

Tickets may be purchased onsite at the box office, or skip the ticket line and visit www.fearworld.com to purchase online now. Photos and interviews with the NETHERWORLD team are available upon request.
