ATLANTA: Wholesome Wave Georgia will host the 8th annual Southern Chefs Potluck fundraiser on Sunday, September 17 at the charming Inn at Serenbe. This year's event will once again bring together Georgia's most prestigious culinary and beverage talent with more than 250 guests for an afternoon of fellowship and charity.

The beloved Southern Chefs Potluck is a casual Sunday supper that celebrates and supports the mission of Wholesome Wave Georgia. "We have a big goal for this year's Southern Chefs Potluck and we are always grateful to the chef and beverage community that helps us make that goal a reality," says Sara Berney, Wholesome Wave Georgia's Executive Director. "The 2016 event helped raise more than $186,000 and this year we would like to reach that goal again to put it directly back into our community as healthy, local food for underserved families and as income for Georgia farmers."

Wholesome Wave Georgia is rolling out exciting new elements to the Potluck this year, including a VIP pre-party hosted by Gina and Linton Hopkins for VIP ticket-holders. The kick-off party will be held in the pool area at the Inn at Serenbe and will feature live music, cocktails by Gina Hopkins, and small bites from Chef Hopkins. Guests can also look forward to one-of-a-kind live auction items including curated dinner experiences, exclusive access to the Atlanta Hawks and much more.

The full roster of participating chefs and beverage talent will be announced in the coming weeks.

ABOUT WHOLESOME WAVE GEORGIA: Wholesome Wave Georgia (WWG) believes that all Georgians should have access to wholesome, locally-grown food. By doubling each Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP, aka Food Stamps) dollar spent at our sustainable, producer-only farmers markets, we increase access to good food while supporting sustainable farmers and contributing to the local food economy. WWG has grown from three partner markets in 2009 to a network of 45 markets and direct-marketing farms in 2016. We are located in 27 cities throughout the state, stretching from Metro Atlanta to Valdosta, from Pine Mountain to Augusta.
